

Helpful Websites

City of Burlingame: Basic emergency preparedness info and contact numbers for code enforcement, parking questions, streetlight maintenance and other issues is available at <http://www.burlingame.org/index.aspx?page=897>. There's a link at the top to a PDF you can print out and keep by your phone.

City of Burlingame's e-newsletter: Register at www.burlingame.org/signup

City of Burlingame crime prevention tips: <http://www.burlingame.org/index.aspx?page=187>

City of Burlingame crime prevention newsletter: <http://www.burlingame.org/index.aspx?page=1682> (If you sign up for SMC Alert, you will automatically receive this newsletter)

Crime Reports: Go to www.crimereports.com to sign up for alerts about crimes in Burlingame, which are shown on a map.

CPR classes offered by Central County Fire Department:
<http://www.burlingame.org/index.aspx?page=1151>

SMC Alert: This emergency notification system is tied to your cell phone, PDA or computer to alert you on matters that impact our city and other parts of the county. To register for the alerts, go to SMC Alert's website at <http://smcalert.info>.

San Mateo County's emergency preparedness website: www.smcready.org

Red Cross preparedness Information: www.prepare.org

Bay Area preparedness info for special needs and other languages: www.preparenow.org

FEMA national preparedness info: www.ready.gov

State of California's Office of Emergency Services: www.oes.ca.gov

Totally Unprepared: This website at www.totallyunprepared.com asks, "Are you ready for an earthquake? No? Well, you have come to the right place to get started." The site nudges you to get ready with entertaining prompts like Preparedness Bingo and an app called Shake My Stuff.